Ms. Carolyn McEwan
Sales Representative

Dear Carolyn:

Let me congratulate you on being the number TWO salesperson for sales with Re/Max Condos Plus for 2007. This proves once again that you are one of our finest agents. You have overcome health issues, and you still come out on top. Strength and determination describes you well.

Your success is a reflection of your attention to detail, care for your clients and your organization. We continue to be the largest condominium and downtown broker, and we have been able to attract some of the best agents, so this is truly a well-earned honor.

Thank you for your support and the example you set for our Company. You are a professional and it is reflected in how you handle both your clients and business. I know 2008 will be another great year for you and your clients.

Yours Truly,

Jamie Johnston, Broker/Owner
